MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM :

STATINTL

THROUGH : Deputy to the DCI for the Intelligence Community JM

SUBJECT : Invitation to Speak at DCM Seminar

1. I have been asked to extend an invitation to you to address the upcoming Deputy Chiefs of Mission Seminar which is being held at a facility in Cacapon State Park, Berkeley Springs, West Virginia on 14-21 July. Fifteen DCMs will be participating in the Seminar. The program consists of case studies conducted by a contracting firm during the day and senior Government officials addressing the group each evening.

2. For your convenience, Gordon Tiger, the Senior Coordinator (whom you will recall as the former Consul General in Karachi), has indicated a choice of evenings -- either Thursday, 15 July; Friday, the 16th; or Monday, the 19th. The group would be pleased if you could join them for dinner at 6:00. However, if this is not possible, you could arrive somewhat later and simply address them without participating in the meal.

3. Berkeley Springs is approximately 1-1/2 hours driving time from Washington. Accommodations would be available should you wish to stay overnight. The Seminar organizers are most anxious to have you participate, since you bring to their discussions a unique combination of intelligence and the overseas mission experience.
